

Thurlstone Primary School Accessibility Plan

Introduction

This plan is drawn up in accordance with the planning duty in the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, as amended by the SEN and Disability Act 2001 (SENDA), which places a duty on all schools to plan to increase over time the accessibility of the school for disabled pupils and to implement their plan.

It draws on the guidance set out in "Accessible Schools: Planning to increase access to schools for disabled pupils," issued by the DfES in July 2002.

Definition of Disability

Disability is defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA): "A person has a disability if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day to day activities." Some children defined as disabled, who for instance have arthritis, may not be defined as having SEN. Some children defined as having SEN, who for instance may have a behavioural difficulty, may not be defined as being disabled.

Planning Duty

The school recognises its duty under the DDA (as amended by the SENDA):

- Not to discriminate against disabled pupils in its admissions and exclusions, and provision of education and associated services.
- Not to treat disabled pupils less favourably.
- To take reasonable steps to avoid putting disabled pupils at a substantial disadvantage.
- To publish an Accessibility Plan.

Thurlstone Primary School is committed to an inclusive curriculum and increasing access to the school's facilities for all by:

- Increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school's curriculum. This covers teaching and learning and the wider curriculum of the school such as participation in after-school clubs, leisure and cultural activities or school visits.
- Improving access to the physical environment of the school. This covers improvements to the physical environment of the school and physical aids to access education.
- Improving the delivery of written information to disabled pupils. This will include planning to make the written information that is normally provided by the school to its pupils, available to disabled pupils.
