

Thurlstone Primary School – Uniform Policy 2022

ALL UNIFORM MUST BE LABELLED WITH YOUR CHILD'S NAME

We believe that a uniform helps children to be ready to learn and promotes a sense of standards. It is essential that all children wear the school uniform.

The approved school uniform includes:

- A plain royal blue sweatshirt, hoodie or cardigan. You do not have to have the school logo on.
- An orange hoodie
- A blue Thurlstone fleece for Y6 children only
- A plain white or royal blue polo shirt
- Black or grey school trousers (no jeans)
- A black or grey pinafore or skirt
- Tights should be black or grey
- Socks should be white, black or grey
- Smart, comfortable, black shoes.
- Because the children do the Daily Mile children can chose to wear black, white or royal blue trainers as their main school shoes.
- No jewellery
- Any pierced earring should be small studs
- Children with long hair should have it tied back
- Sensible and safe watches can be worn
- No nail varnish or acrylic nails on fingers
- No nail varnish toes
- No art work or 'pretend tattoos' to be on display

When appropriate, due to warm weather:

- blue checked or striped summer dresses with blue or white socks
- Black or grey formal school shorts

P.E.

- Plain black shorts
- trainers
- white t-shirt
- in colder weather track suit bottoms and sweatshirts can be worn
