

Roald Dahl: The World's Favourite Storyteller

Roald Dahl was one of the greatest children's authors of all time! He wrote exciting, funny, and magical stories that are loved by kids all over the world. You might know some of his famous books like Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Matilda, The BFG, and James and the Giant Peach.

Early Life

Roald Dahl was born on September 13, 1916, in Wales. His parents were from Norway, and he loved hearing Norwegian fairy tales as a child. He was a very adventurous boy and often got into mischief, which gave him lots of ideas for his stories!

Adventures Before Writing

Before becoming a writer, Roald Dahl had an exciting life. He worked in Africa for an oil company and then became a pilot during World War II. Some of his adventures as a pilot inspired his early stories.

Becoming an Author

Roald started writing books for children in the 1940s. His stories are full of unforgettable characters, funny words, and surprising twists. He loved creating fantastic inventions and making ordinary kids into heroes.

Fun Facts About Roald Dahl

- Roald Dahl made up over 500 new words in his books, like whizzpopping and scrumdiddlyumptious!
- He loved chocolate and even worked in a chocolate factory as a boy, which inspired Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
- He wrote many of his books in a little hut in his garden.

His Legacy

Roald Dahl's stories have been turned into movies, plays, and musicals that people still enjoy today. He passed away on November 23, 1990, but his stories continue to make readers laugh, dream, and imagine.

If you love magic, humour, and adventure, Roald Dahl's books are waiting to take you on an unforgettable journey. <https://www.roalddahl.com/>