

The Shuttle

21/03/25

One of this week's highlights has been the Y5 visit to London! They had a wonderful day visiting the Houses of Parliament - they even met with Marie Tidball MP! A huge thank you to Miss Brown for organising the visit and to Miss Brown, Mr Peace, Miss Alderton and Mrs Bottomley for taking such great care of the children on the trip.

And what a beautiful day for it!

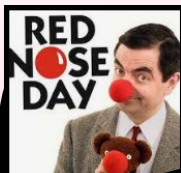

This Thursday was our very own TEACHING ASSISTANT APPRECIATION DAY!

We appreciate our amazingly skilled teaching assistants because they're basically classroom ninjas - silently swooping in to save the day before chaos erupts. They juggle phonics groups, dodge flying glue sticks, and can calm a room full of kids with just a look. Their ability to turn meltdowns into teachable moments is nothing short of magic, and let's be honest - without them, our teachers would be buried under an avalanche of glitter and untied shoelaces!

WE WOULD BE LOST WITHOUT THEM ALL!

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU DO!

What ridiculous children you have!

Never have we seen such silliness! TOP marks to all the children and staff who came to school looking LUDICROUS!

Here's just a few of them!

COMIC RELIEF DAD JOKE SPECIAL!

What do you call a fly without wings?
A walk.

Why are elevator jokes so good?
They work on many levels.

I went to buy a pair of camouflage pants ... but I couldn't find any.

Why did the whale blush?
It saw the ocean's bottom.

How many tickles does it take to make an octopus laugh?
Ten-tickles

How many skunks does it take to make a stink?
Just a phew.

(SORRY!)
