WEEK 5 COMPLETE!

One more week and then it's HALF TERM!

This week has been a busy one! Children have been working hard and enjoying their learning. Staff are, as always, working hard behind the scenes developing reading areas to inspire even the most reluctant readers!

Life's a short and precious gift, so it makes sense to ensure your alive part is properly alive. You may as well do some stuff, shake your booty and wave your arms around a bit before the music stops.

Friday's Cheesy yet WISE WORDS OF WISDOM

Our Y3/4 athletics team did the school proud on Thursday last week, coming 1st and winning the trophy! What an fabulous effort!

DIARY DATES

Children's Mental Health Week

9th-13th Feb

Friday 13th Feb

Friday 13th Feb

Break up for half term

Next Friday is DRESS TO EXPRESS DAY!

This is a chance to wear whatever you want in a style that reflects something about you! This day forms part of the marking of Children's Mental Health Week!

It's all about celebrating the wonderful person you are and expressing yourself loud and proud!

Can't wait to see what everyone wears!

Neurodiversity Celebration Week

We've decided to take part in Neurodiversity Celebration Week, which runs from 16th March to the 20th. Watch this space for more information soon!

Our new school caterer, Chartwell are providing a parent/carer tasting session at 3-3.30pm on Thursday, 12th February in the School Hall. So come along and taste the new menus - all free of charge.

Pre-school children welcome.
